This workshop is suitable for all levels of ability including beginners.

Morning

- Introduction
- Colour mixing
- Developing a composition
- Blocking in the background colours

Afternoon

- Layering blocks of colour and adding detail to the composition
- Conclusion

About the Tutor

Suzy was born in London in 1964 and studied at the Royal Academy Schools and Wimbledon School of Art. She has lived in South Devon for many years where she paints and teaches part time. Suzy's paintings are a response to the nearby moor, forest and garden with its changing seasons and produce. Suzy has exhibited in London, Devon and Cornwall including at the Royal Academy Summer exhibition and was shortlisted for the Lynn Painter Stainers prize.

Materials

- Tubes of gouache paint in red, yellow, blue and white. It's better to have fewer colour but good quality paint than many colours of poor quality paint.
- Brushes: a soft fine brush for detail and a medium sized brush for blocking in larger areas of colour. Watercolour brushes or soft synthetic brushes are good.
- A palette or plate for mixing.
- Paper and mount board will be provided but you may wish to bring a notebook or sketchbook.

- Pencil for sketching
- If you would like to make use of Heatherley's tea and coffee facilities, please bring your own mug. Heatherley's no longer provide plastic cups.
